Massage through sounds Sonic waves absorbed by the whole body are completely different than being absorbed by ear. The ear changes sonic waves into nerve impulses which the brain transfers. Sonic waves which are absorbed through the body directly have different effects. Because of the high water content of the body they reach each cell and organs and even the smallest capillaries. These vibrations can be compared to a massage but a very subtle one, without being an additional burden for the organism. Sonic waves leading to a micro massage at the molecular and cellular level.

There are no contraindications as sometimes indicated for a classical massage therapy or Ultrasound therapy, therefore we have a much broader therapeutic spectrum.

Micro massage There are small micro- fine structured rip areas especially located around the hips, thighs, and neck area which allow a deeper and very efficient micro massage. Thus the whole body is in a subtle holistic vibration and micro massage.

Enzyme improvement The micro massage on the cellular and molecular level therefore produces a more intensive metabolic effect. Additionally it leads to an improvement of the enzymatic and enzyme stimulating process.

State of Deep Relaxation Music and sound are not only physically experienced, they are also psychologically experienced. The body is able to "feel" the sound patterns, and also "visualizes" the music through the LED light therapy glasses applicator. This creates a new unique and holistic experience of "sensed" vibrations.

Harmonisation Our world is sound and is organized by harmonically laws, macrocosms and microcosms, as physicist Kepler discovered. Everything, be it Planets or as well Atoms and Molecules of DNS and RNS are functioning in-between these harmonic proportions and rules. Therefore also the rhythm of pulse, breathing, blood circulation etc follows these harmonic relations. Any disturbance in the body can be seen as a "wrong tone at a wrong place", if we assume that every body structure has its own frequency and vibration. If we stimulate now blocked body structures with vibrations, they will -first of all- vibrate in the same frequency and secondly will get back to their normal harmonic structure after a short while. The MediWave 7000 is equipped with several sound and tone program regimens which have been developed especially to reorganize these body structures. Nowadays especially the brain frequencies are very well scientifically researched. But as everyone is an individual there are always slightly different frequencies in the body which are varying from being to being. Especially the resonance effect of the MediWave technology and the Sound/Sonic wave regimens produce the best results, by stimulating the whole body and achieving a resonance effect.

Unique Sound wave regimen

The Core piece of the MEDIWAVE 7000 is the special Sound- Wave- regimen concept with brain wave stimulation and a harmonizing musical scale programs as it is well known in Ayurvedic or TCM Medicine and Spinal-innervating-researches. All Sounds of the scale can be chosen freely. Additionally they can be varied by Signal (Sinus or rectangle) or Volume. This is depending on the individual physical well being experience. Therefore it allows a very broad spectrum in usage to achieve professional results. The fully automatic programs, are very easy to operate also in a home therapy, are listed below.

CD-Player

The integrated CD player is an additional experience, as it enables the Mediwave user to listen to his own favorite music. This is also excellent for persons with hearing disabilities or sensory difficulties.

Light LED Glasses

The LED Light glasses are intensifying the 'sensed' sound waves. This is an effect which is well known from Mind-machines and Light therapy. The Light frequencies are synchronized together with the Sound frequencies. Thus stimulating and balancing the vegetative nervous system, muscle tonus and immune system.
